Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Onida, the county seat of Sully County, is a progressive business community, with vibrant agriculture, and a wide variety of retail businesses; and,

Whereas, Onida first dotted the map on March 28, 1883, at the request of Charles H. Agar, of Sully County, for the purpose of laying out a townsite which he chose to call Onida after his home town in New York; and,

Whereas, Onida is nestled in the midst of the South Dakota prairie, a true treasure of the Dakota landscape, which provides the best habitat for game and is a hunters paradise; and,

Whereas, Onida has continued to prosper because of honest, hard-working, and family-oriented people, making it a tremendous place to live and grow; and,

Whereas, Now, state government is going on the road to the people of Onida in a unique program called "Capital for a Day"; and,

Whereas, "Capital for a Day" is designed to provide a local forum whereby an exchange of ideas, information, and concerns among the governor, cabinet officials, representatives for the private business sector, local elected officials, special interest groups, and the general public can occur:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 3, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
